Teaching evaluations

Table 2 summarizes my teaching evaluations for the most recent two courses that I served as an instructor. I have included the "Core Items" in the evaluation, as defined by the University of Minnesota's Office of Measurement Services. The ratings are out of 6 points, with 6 meaning that the student "strongly agrees", and 1 indicating that the student "strongly disagrees".

Summary statistics for items concerning student demographics, evaluation of teaching facilities, etc. are omitted here. Scans of the original documents produced by the Office of Measurement Services are available upon request.

TABLE 2: Summary of Responses to Core Items

The instructor provided feedback to improve my course performance	5	5.12	5	4.80
The instructor treated me with respect	6	5.58	6	5.47
I have a deeper understanding of the subject material as a result of this course	5	5.26	5	5.03
My interest in the subject matter was stimulated by the course	6	5.27	5	5.03

Comments from students

- She explains the subjects in details and organized ways.
- I think presentation is great way to participate in lecture.
- She uses real life videos which makes class more interesting.
- PPT is well organized and midterm & final review are helpful to what I should study
- Gave real world, current news example of the very abstract principles we were learning
- She went over every concepts that I did no understand
